

Walking directions to the Quaker Meeting House.

When you come out of the ACC, after registering, turn slightly to the left and walk between the big wheel and the Jury's Inn Hotel.

Cross the little bridge over the canal, and then turn right. Go over the next bridge and turn left, through the stone archway. Head for the big metal statue of a horse on the other side of the main road (there is a pedestrian crossing) and walk up this street (Liver Street). You'll see John Lewis ahead of you.

Take the first left, so that you walk between the Police Station car park and the big Q Park car park (this is the nearest public car park to the venue if you are driving).

Soon you come to the bus station. Cross the road (carefully!) and carry straight on, towards a huge set of steps, on the edge of the pedestrianised shopping zone. Turn right here (you'll see a signpost pointing to 'Bluecoat' – a building almost next to our venue) and walk on towards the Urban Outfitters shop ahead of you.

When you get to the big open junction (Paradise Place) turn left, and walk past Lindt (PAST it!). Look out for School Lane on the right, between Schuh and Deichman shoe shops.

Soon you'll see the famous Bluecoat building on the right, and a little further on, the Quaker Meeting House. It's a brick building with a big Q hanging off the wall.

Come into reception and they will direct you to the Institute Room, where refreshments will be ready for you.